Championship contenders need to start in a minimum of five qualifying events and compete in the Grand Final Trial to contest the Championship awards (please refer to the full Championship Rules at www.btrda.com/car\_trials/).

Whilst registered contenders in the BTRDA Car Trials Championship should automatically receive Regulations and Entry Forms for events, they will also be available on www.btrda.com/Car\_Trials/. Responsibility rests with competitors to ensure that events are entered as required.

The BTRDA promotes the most widely supported national Car Trials Championship, in conjunction with the best trials available and a format to suit all competitors. To compete, entrants will need to be members of the BTRDA and register for the Car Trials Championship, have a suitable MSA competition licence, a suitable car and a passenger (who will need to be a member of one of the invited clubs or BTRDA). BTRDA membership, including discounted special Trials Passenger Only Membership, is available online and by paper application from the following contacts:
