

Examples of “Contributing” to the sport, 2014.

The list below is a list that the committee suggest competitors that count as contributing.

Competitors are reminded they need to claim their “contributing” within three weeks to the championship secretary.

If a competitor thinks of another way of “contributing” to the sport, please ask the chairman or secretary.

- Named official of a BTRDA sporting trial championship qualifying event or championship final (eg Clerk of Course, Secretary, Steward, Chief Marshal, Scrutineer)
- Marshalling at a BTRDA sporting trial championship qualifying event or championship final
- With prior permission of the organiser bringing a car and acting as a trainer at a BTRDA training day
- Spending a day promoting the sport at a show on a sporting trials stand
- Helping set-up a championship trial
- Finding a new sporting trials venue that is used within the calendar year
- Specialist testing agreed by the committee
